Loss of Three Men Has Equalized the Strength of Two Teams.

On the Normal floor tomorrow night Fairmont High will clash with the strong Shinnston High school team. The game will be one of the hardest the local team will play in Fairmont this year.

The Shinnston team is unusually strong, having defeated the Buckhannon High school five, which defeated both Fairmont and Fairview last

Since the victory over Buckhannon, the team has lost three of its best men. This will weaken the visiting team and will put the visitors on a par with Fairmont.

Under the direction of Assistant Coach Carpenter, Fairmont has had some fast practices during the past night. The same Pt. Marion that we read so much about.

Freshman defeated the Sophomores in the first game. Revenge for that "never-to-be-forgotten" hammering in the fall of 1917.
